

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives

December 14, 2011

The President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

As we work together to end this legislative year by advancing initiatives to help Americans struggling in a difficult economy, we must also look ahead for new opportunities to put solutions before politics. In the coming year, Republicans will continue our efforts to create an environment for economic growth and job creation, and we welcome an opportunity to hear your new ideas for working with the Congress. Therefore, I am privileged to invite you to deliver an address on the State of the Union on January 24, 2012, before a Joint Session of Congress.

Thank you for your consideration, and I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "John A. Boehner". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each word being capitalized and prominent.
John A. Boehner